National Conference on Australian Prison Issues

Date: 21st October, 2009 8.45am - 5pm

One of our goals at the Australian Prison Foundation is to help create and sustain networks and knowledge sharing among stakeholders of corrections services in Australia, as a part of this each year we will hold a low cost conference.

The first National Conference on Australian Prison Issues will be held in Melbourne at the Burwood campus of Deakin University in 2009. Deakin University is located at 221 Burwood Hwy. The conference is being held at Building X, Lecture Theatre 12.

Who Should Attend?

Persons interested in prison issues - ex-prisoners, family and support persons to prisoners and ex-prisoners, criminal justice activists and reformers, those working in or with the criminal justice system, policy makers and politicians, employers and social service providers, students and interested members of the community.

For further details please see our conference website at www.prisonissuesconference.webs.com or email us at prisonfoundation@email.com
